Subject: Fwd: Outstanding Invoice from Oracle — please advise

---

Hi Sanghyun,

Hope you're well. We received the email below from Oracle this morning claiming we have an unpaid invoice from February. I wasn't aware of anything outstanding with them, and honestly I'm not sure how to respond.

Could you take a look at our books and let me know whether we actually owe this $15,000? If it's a duplicate or already paid, I'll need talking points to push back. If we really do owe it, let me know what we need to do to get it processed and I'll loop in AP on my end.

Whatever you need from us — confirmation language, dispute wording, anything else — just send it over and I'll handle the reply. Thanks for jumping on this.

Best,

Subject: Outstanding Invoice — Payment Required — INV ORCL-2026-1247

Dear Valued Customer,

We are writing to follow up regarding an outstanding invoice on your account that remains unpaid. Our records indicate the following:

Invoice Number: ORCL-2026-1247
Invoice Date: February 1, 2026
Original Due Date: March 3, 2026
Amount Due: $15,000.00 USD
Days Past Due: 57 days

This invoice covers Oracle Cloud Infrastructure services for the period of January 2026, in accordance with your active subscription agreement. We have not yet received payment for this invoice, and our prior reminder communications appear to have gone unanswered.

We understand that invoices can occasionally be misplaced or overlooked, and we would like to work with you to resolve this matter promptly. To avoid any potential service disruption or escalation to further collection action, please remit payment at your earliest convenience.

If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice and reply with the payment confirmation details (date, method, and reference number) so we can update our records accordingly. If there is a dispute or discrepancy that requires discussion, please reply directly to this email and we will assist in resolving the matter.

We value our business relationship and look forward to your prompt response.

Best regards,

Sandra Chen
